EAST LIVERLY, June 27.—Cattle—Receipts since Friday 2,451 head of thorough and 1,046 head of yard stock. Total for the week, 6,888 head of thorough and 1,034 head of local for sale here, against 7,016 head of thorough and 1,744 head of local the week before. The run bulk of the offerings were Chicago and St. Louis stock. The balance were country light hogs, and were sold to Lancaster county buyers for feeding and to the local butcher trade. Thereabout, ten or twelve loads of prime were shipped East, to New York; some of them for exportation. Prices a shade advanced, but nothing to speak of. Only a few calves are unsold, but more are billed to arrive, which may influence to-morrow's prices and the market.

HOGS—Receipts 5,380 head. Total for the week 6,555 head, against 18,106 last week. Philadelphia $5 55ad 30c; Yorkers $5 00ad 10c. Pigs—Receipts 5,500 head. Total for the week 21,000 head, against 25,750 last week. Selling very active at last week's prices.

CINCINNATI, June 17.—Hogs firm; common and light $4 4½; butchers and packing $3 45w to $5. Receipts 2,200 head; shipment $750 head.
